De Gaulle Cartoons Considered UnfunnyEditor, Pittsburgh Press:*

Recently, many newspapers have been portraying Mr.
De Gaulle through the media of cartoons. Not only are such cartoons not humorous, they are thoroughly disgusting, since they generally distort his thoughts and intentions.

Mr. De Gaulle, like him or not, appears to be quite certain as to what he wishes to accomplish, where he wishes to go, and why. Can the same be said of authorities in our State Department, the CIA, and the Pentagon?
